

“When I moved to Chicago in '75, I became part of a group of gay men and there were about sixty-five of us. In 1985 I was the only one still alive. I lost everybody [to AIDS].”

Ted Hoerl